BANQUET FOR THE COUNTY PLANNED

Pitch-in Dinner Will be Held on Streets of Rushville, Tuesday Evening, August 29.

COUNTY WILL BE CANVASSED.

Committees Will Visit Every Township Monday and Invite Farmers to Participate.

A community dinner on the streets of the city at which at least two or three thousand people will be present is being planned for a week from next Tuesday evening. It will be what is commonly as well as popularly known as a pitch-in dinner. The uppermost idea is that each shall "pitch in" his or her share but each who contributes a portion is also expected to "pitch in" and eat all they can.

Last night committees were appointed to canvass the county in automobiles next Monday and extend personal invitations to farmers to attend and ask those farmers to urge all of their neighbors to be present. The meeting last night at the council chamber was the second successive session to consider the community dinner.

A finance committee was appointed and A. L. Gary selected to act as toastmaster for the short speaking program that is to be arranged for after the banquet. It was also voted to establish a check room in the court house so that farmers might leave their baskets if they came to Rushville some time before the banquet.

It was determined that the tables should be set four ways up from the streets from the corner of Main and Second streets, where the band stand would be situated. The permission will be gained to rope the streets off during the time for the banquet and an effort will be made to have them swept clean. It is hoped to arrange for the regular band concert on that night instead of Wednesday night.

One method of determining how many will participate in the dinner is to have a tent at the fair grounds next week at which each person who expects to be present will be asked to register.

A flag will be given the township delegation which has the most people. Each person eating will be asked to sign his or her ticket and the name of the township from which they come. The city of Rushville will not be allowed to compete.

The finance committee appointed to raise funds to defray the slight expense of the banquet is composed of Walter Easley, R. E. Harrold and Will Abercrombie. The invitation committee which will tour the county Monday was divided into four parts and each division assigned three townships. In each division is an automobile owner. The committee follows:

Charles A. Mauzy, L. L. Allen, V. C. Bodine and Earl H. Payne, assigned to Orange, Noble and Union townships; Roy Jones, Will M. Bliss and F. E. Wolcott, assigned to Rushville, Anderson and Richland; Walter Hubbard, Jack Knecht and John Moore, assigned to Jackson, Center and Washington; A. Bogue, Glen Miller, Matt Walker and H. G. Hackman (to go in Clark & Caldwell's car), assigned to Ripley, Posey and Walker.

Members of the committee are requested to pick up other members for the trip if possible. The entertainment committee will meet Monday evening in the council chamber to report what progress was made.

Committees have been quietly at work on the plan for a few weeks

IN CHARGE OF GRAND JURY

Wilbur Ryman of Muncie, Related Here Goes After Grafters.

Wilbur Ryman of Muncie, brother of Mrs. Wilbur Stant of 219 North Spencer street, is conducting a special session of the Delaware county grand jury which is supposed to be investigating further the Muncie graft cases. Mr. Ryman and his family spent last week end here at the Stant home. J. Frank Mann, prosecuting attorney, insisted on having charge of the grand jury yesterday and had to be led out of the room by a deputy sheriff. Because of his activity in the graft investigations, Mr. Ryman's house was damaged by dynamite last March but no member of his family was injured.

JURY'S VERDICT IS FOR ALLEINE MOORE

Other Charges Growing Out of the Trouble With William Dugan May Not be Tried.

JURORS OUT A LONG TIME

The jury which tried the provoke case against Alleine Moore in Squire Kratzer's court yesterday found her not guilty. The jury was out some little time in reaching a verdict. The case required all of the day as considerable trouble was experienced in getting a jury. The charge was filed by William Dugan.

As this was believed to have been the strongest case Dugan had against the Moore family, it is not likely that the other case will be tried, according to Prosecutor Stevens. Harley Frazier acted as special judge in this trial. The various cases growing out of the family feud have attracted considerable attention and occupied much of the court's time.

30,000 SOLDIERS AT BROWNSVILLE SAFE

Wireless Received at Dallas, Texas, Today Reports None Was Injured in Hurricane.

CAUSEWAY BADLY DAMAGED

(By United Press.) Dallas, Texas, August 19.—The southwestern telegraph and telephone companies received a wireless from Brownsville and Galveston shortly before noon today stating that 30,000 national guardsmen there are safe. No news was received from the hurricane in that region.

The telephone companies' wires are working as far as Sinton, 60 miles north of Corpus Christi, and workmen have strung a temporary wire from Sinton to the bay shore opposite Corpus Christi. They reported the causeway and the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad bridge connecting Corpus Christi with the mainland badly damaged. The workmen at last reports were forcing their way across the bay with a cable and expect to establish direct communication with Corpus Christi and San Antonio late today.

Marriage licenses were issued today to Luther D. Nixon and Myla Gordon; Earl Perkins and Nilah Manor.

BOOSTING FOR MOTOR PAGEANT

M. E. Noblet, Secretary Hoosier State Automobile Association, Touring This Part of State

CENTENNIAL HIGHWAY DAY

Plan is For Motorists From all Over State to Converge at Indianapolis for Parade

M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier State Automobile association, is making a booster trip through this section of the state arousing interest in Indiana centennial highway day October 12, which will be a feature of the state celebration in Indianapolis, climaxing all the county celebrations.

The central idea of the scheme, which was conceived by Dr. Harold of Richmond, a great highway enthusiast, is for motorists to gather along the roads leading into Indianapolis and proceed into the capital, converging at a central point from which a parade will be made.

Mr. Noblet lately held a meeting at Shelbyville and was assured the support of the Shelby County Motor club in arranging for the movement. Motor clubs elsewhere are preparing for the event with great energy.

Other cities to be visited in this part of Indiana are Greensburg, Batesville, Versailles, Aurora, Brookville, Liberty, Connersville, Winchester, Union City and Portland.

Divisional chairman of the parades have been appointed for the National Old Trails Road, Dixie Highway, Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean Highway, Hoosier Dixie Highway, Jackson Highway, Michigan Road, Range Line Road, Noblesville Pike, Pendleton Pike, Rushville Pike, Shelbyville Pike and the Three Notch Road.

The different sections of the parades will proceed to Indianapolis headed by their bands, with cars decorated with bunting of National colors and with pennants and signs of the various towns represented. This will be the largest assemblage of automobiles ever gotten together in any celebration.

All brass bands heading the various delegations will be consolidated in Indianapolis and march at the head of the parade. It is estimated that there will be at least one thousand musicians who will be under the direction of W. S. Mitchell of Indianapolis.

Lee Nusbaum, of Richmond, will drill the band in the eastern part of the state, and Professor Cosner of Bloomington, will direct the band in the southern part of the state. Cleo Hunt, of Brownsburg will assist the musical committee.

Governor Samuel M. Ralston will be chairman of the centennial highway day celebration. The various heads of committees to work out the plans for the celebration will begin work immediately.

M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier Motor Club, will be parade organizer. Divisional chairmen for the important roads in the state have been elected as follows: Old Trails road, Horace Kramer, Richmond, and Charles L. McKeen, Terre Haute, Dixie Highway, W. Edward Showers, Bloomington; J. A. Northway, Martinsville, Pikes Peak-to-Ocean highway, William Montgomery, Montezuma, and Albert Chambers, Richmond; Hoosier-Dixie highway, Tom Morgan, Marion; Jackson highway, Walter Crim, Salem; W. H. Lincoln, Columbus; Walter Brown, Frankfort and Charles W.

DISAGREES WITH DR. A. F. NELSON

Dr. J. Harvey Slayter Disputes What State Veterinarian Said About His Serum.

OFFERS $100 FOR THE PROOF

Declares His Product is Made and Tested Under the Government's Supervision.

Dr. Harvey Slayter of the Slayter Serum company, who is in the city, takes exceptions to Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian. Dr. Nelson in a letter to local veterinarians "knocked" the Slayter company, and advised the farmers to know what they were doing in using their serum. The fight between the veterinarian's office and the serum company is looked upon with interest here since Rush county is the banner hog producing county of the state.

The statement issued by Dr. Slayter today is as follows: "We will pay $100 to Dr. Nelson, or anyone who will produce an advertisement of ours where the cost will be 72 cents to immunize a pig weighing 50 to 100 pounds. Dr. Nelson says we wrote such an ad. Let him produce it. Our advertisement has appeared in this paper for two or three days. The farmers should see what it says about the price.

"The cost is only two cents extra to make a hog permanently immune. The single method is not recommended by the Slayter Serum company. Dr. Nelson attacked us last fall in a Hartford City newspaper. It makes business good; keep it up doctor.

"We will be glad to compare the results of our serum with that of any company. We have a list of names and addresses of hundreds of farmers who have used our serum and virus, with date and number of hogs. We will gladly supply this list to anyone. Our product is all made and tested under government supervision, License No. 93.

"The United States Department of Agriculture, through its investigators, Drs. Dorset, Niles and McBride discovered anti-hog cholera serum and informed the Indiana state department as well as others how to make it. Is there any better authority to test serum and regulate dose? Our serum must stand the highest test to be given in doses of 20 c. c. for 100 pound pigs.

"If the Rush county farmers are in need of a guardian to keep them from being 'gulled' would it not be advisable to elect one? It does not belong to the office of the state veterinarian. We offer to vaccinate free of charge six or twelve shoats if the owner will place them with hogs sick with cholera to eat, sleep, and run with them. If they die we will pay for them. Results count. Watch the results of our serum."

A. D. Spurlin of Maywood, who will be in charge of the serum making of the National Serum company, which is to be established here, today replied to charges in Dr. Nelson's letter yesterday that he was "the only person within this state who totally disregards the law." Mr. Spurlin said he has been working in this county for some time and has a large number of satisfied customers. He declared opposition to him was aroused because he guaranteed his work. He declared he had been refused a license. A state law says serum may not be administered for pay except by licensed veterinarians. He says he sells the serum and then administers it free of charge.

Masons and G. A. R. Attend Last Sad Rites Over Veteran

The funeral services of the late Col. Edward H. Wolfe were conducted this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. D. Ira Lambert. The Masonic lodge of this city was joined by members of the lodges over the county and attended in a body. The fast dwindling membership of the G. A. R. was represented, most of the members attending in a body. Many Masons from over the state were present and it was one of the largest lodge funerals ever held here. The active pall bearers were Lee Pyle, Oliver Ong, Earl H. Payne, Samuel L. Traub, Harry Beale and Ed Pitman.

SWEETEN PURSES FOR ROAD HORSES

Merchants Add $130 to Money Hung on Wire for County Races at Fair Next Week

EACH PURSE IS WORTH $115

The merchants of Rushville have sweetened the purses of the county road races at the county fair next week so that each one will be worth $115, as compared to $50, the purse which has heretofore been given by the fair association. Business south of First street raised $65 for the road races and not to be outdone the merchants above First street raised an equal amount. Sixty-five dollars has been added to the $50 offered by the fair to the road trot set for Tuesday afternoon, making the purse $115. The pacers will go for a similar amount on Friday afternoon. The two races are now well filled and there is every indication of them being the best on the week's card.

It was stated today that there were more entries in the fine arts department Thursday night than there were at any previous fair and more are to come. Concessions began to arrive today and the fair grounds began to take on new life.

BOY HITS REAR END OF STANDING AUTO

Russell Webber, 13, Suffers Severe Scalp Wound When he Collides With Machine.

WHILE RIDING A BICYCLE

Russell Webber, 13 years old, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Webber, 525 West Fifth street, was painfully hurt last night when he ran into the rear of an automobile while riding a bicycle. The accident occurred in front of the Dr. D. H. Dean residence in Main street. He sustained a long scalp wound and was bruised in the fall.

The rear light on the automobile was lighted but the boy failed to see it and crashed into the heavy machine, which was parked next to the curb. It was not found necessary to take any stitches in the wound. The bicycle was considerably damaged as a result of the collision.

The Equitable Surety company has filed an account suit against Fred White and Samuel H. Colter, demanding $75.

WESTERN RAIL HEADS CALLED

President Summons Additional Executives in Effort to Settle Impending Strike

STANDS PAT ON HIS DEMANDS

Wilson Issues Statement After R. Presidents Tell Him Arbitration is Fair Means

(By United Press.) Washington, August 19.—President Wilson this afternoon summoned additional western railroad presidents to the white house.

The president took the action, it was stated, on the representation of the 33 executives who met with him today, that they can not act for all of the important roads, but for only their own roads.

President Wilson in a formal statement of his proposal for settlement of the difficulties between the railroads of the country and the railroad brotherhoods, indicated his intentions to stand pat on his insistence that the 8-hour day be granted the workers.

"This seems to me a practical and entirely fair program," he said, "and I think the public has a right to expect its acceptance."

"The 8-hour day now undoubtedly has the sanction of the judgment of society in its favor and should be adopted as a basis for wages even where the actual work to be done can not be completed within eight hours," the president said.

At the same time the president proposed that the demand for extra pay for overtime and all other issues be postponed, pending an investigation and suggested that if necessary he would obtain authority from congress to appoint a body of impartial investigators to probe the whole question. This body, he said, would report to congress though without making any recommendations.

His statement was issued just after 33 railway heads had assembled at the white house to give their reply to the proposition. President Holden of the C. B. & Q. told the president that they continued to stand for arbitration and did not believe it right to ask them to abandon that principle.

President Wilson still had a serious problem to solve today if he prevented the threatened railroad strike.

That was the situation when 31 railway presidents, 30 railway managers prepared to leave their hotel today for the white house where President Wilson waited to go over the matter once more with them. They hadn't slept much, most of them having been engaged in conferences of their own up to a late hour last night.

The upshot of their conferences was not to accept the president's proposal for settlement of the controversy with the employees. They were prepared to hold out for arbitration, they said.

In a lengthy statement of their position which they had ready to lay before the president, the railroad heads claim they can not yield the principle of arbitration.

They desire peace, they say, but declare such peace must be built up on arbitration.

It appeared that the situation, if it is to be solved, must result now in mutual concessions. The railroad executives are willing to do this. The employees, it became known today, are willing also to tarry a while and consider the question of possible trades.

HURL BACK GERMAN LINE NEAR SOMME

British Troops Make Biggest Gain Friday Night That Has Been Made Since Opening.

ENEMY LOSES ON WIDE FRONT

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 19.—British troops hurled back the German line north of the Somme last night in one of the biggest gains made by the allies since the opening smash of the great offensive.

The Germans were thrown back on practically every sector of a 6-mile front, extending from a point south of Thiepval to the point where the British lines link up with the French near Guillemont.

The greatest British gain was scored from the Foreaux wood eastward to the junction point with the French. General Haig announced this afternoon a British advance on a 2 mile front in this region, penetrating German trenches to a depth of from 200 to 600 yards.

The capture of the western outskirts of the village of Duillemont and important advances north, northwest and east of the village, leaves the Germans still clinging to the ruins of a village in a deep valley and in danger of being cut off and entirely surrounded.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Tariff Real Issue

In the final analysis, the campaign this year will be fought out on the tariff question. The contest will hark back to the real dividing line between the Democratic and Republican parties. There is no loyal Democrat who, when pinned down to it, will not admit that he regards a protective tariff unconstitutional. President Wilson has said as much; so have many national platforms of the Democratic party.

J. A. M. Adair, Democratic congressman and candidate for governor, has been quoted as saying in this campaign that the Underwood bill is a protective measure. If he said it, he is not a true Democrat or else he is misleading the people. In his speech opening the campaign at Fort Wayne this afternoon he said the Underwood bill was "sufficient as a revenue producer."

A tariff designed purely to produce revenue is one so adjusted as to insure the importation of each article mentioned in the schedules. Without a doubt the importation from abroad of products previously manufactured in the United States will in as great a proportion as the amount of the imports restrict production at home. The natural conclusion is then, that a tariff for revenue only is purely and simply one for the single and solitary purpose of having the merchandize we consume manufactured beyond the seas and sold to use by foreign traders. In other words, a tariff for revenue only is one to deliberately accomplish the result of closing American shops and throwing American labor out of employment.

And much to the mystification of the Democratic statesmen, the records will show that tariff revenues are greater under a protective tariff than under a tariff for revenue only. The American people have more money with which to buy and they purchase luxuries which they can not afford when home production is brought in direct competition with the cheaper competition of Europe.

Mr. Hughes's speech at Detroit stirred up an unwelcome activity at the meeting of the President's Cabinet on the following day. "After a long discussion," the Washington newspapers tell us, a telegram was sent to Mr. Hughes by Acting Secretary of Commerce. Sweet denying some of the Republican leader's statements. It will not be long before we shall have Mr. Lansing writing notes to Mr. Hughes threatening him with "strict accountability."

Senator Walsh of Montana will run the Democratic headquarters at Chicago, Roger Sullivan to the contrary nevertheless and notwithstanding. A day or two before his appointment to this job Senator Walsh made a speech in Washington condemning the selection of a candidate for the Presidency from the bench. His reward for thus attacking Hughes was promptly forthcoming.

Matthew Hale charges that Hughes needs the aid of Penrose and Perkins. And he will get it. Wilson, on the other hand, needs the aid of Charlie Murphy much more than Hughes needs the aid of any man—and he will not get it.

The Hughes campaign through the West succeeded in putting the administration on the defensive with the two first speeches.

The list of published "notables" who attended the Indianapolis conference of Progressives totaled just thirteen—which is a most unlucky number.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

How the Wilson Administration Has Penalized Patriotism

"Having in view the possibility of further aggression upon the territory of the United States from Mexico and the necessity for the proper protection of that frontier," President Wilson, on June 18, called out the mobile arms of the National Guard for federal service.

He did not call them out at their existing peace strength, but at war strength, which is practically double. Lacking a system of reserves, the National Guard organizations immediately had to start a campaign of recruiting, to bring about the desired increase in their numbers.

Patriotic young citizens, under the urge of the cry, "Your country needs you," volunteered for service in gratifying numbers. According to Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, the result is that about 135,000 citizen soldiers have been mustered into the federal service and are now on the Mexican border or in camp in their home states. There may be more, but the administration refuses to make known the exact figures.

The movement is costing the public treasury many millions of dollars; it is costing the individual citizen soldiers many millions more. They went to the front believing the cry, "Your country needs you," for war service. They sacrificed advancement in their civil occupations, severed home ties, suffered, in thousands of instances, great financial loss. The less patriotic, who did not believe the cry, or believing, declined to make sacrifices, fatten at home on these losses.

The real purposes of the call are slowly developing. They are two in number:

First, a patrol of the border to do the work which President Wilson's friend, Carranza, finds it impossible to do. Because the recognized government in Mexico is too ineffective to keep its own citizens in check and prevent them murdering Americans on American soil, the American government undertakes the costly task of doing that work for them. The murder of American citizens on Mexican soil is another matter. Carranza may go as far as he likes in that direction.

Second, a purpose of the mobilization on the border and in the camps is to train citizens to perform effective military service. The regular military establishment of the nation is manifestly too small for the actual military needs. To this extent the cry, "Your country needs you," was correct.

But these facts were not made clear when the call was issued. The idea was promulgated that men were needed for actual war service; not for military training. Deceit was practiced.

Opposing in the open legislation for universal military service, the administration by its acts has established what in essence is a system of compulsory military service. It is a system all the more vicious because it operates only against the patriotic, whereas a legalized universal training system equalizes the burden of military service among all men and all classes of men.

When, in 1914, Europe plunged into the greatest war of all history, and conditions in Mexico grew intolerable, intelligent men realized the fact that it was incumbent on this nation to build up its tiny regular army and put its other military resources in condition for use. National safety demanded this. And yet, in December of that year, four months after the European war began, President Wilson went before Congress and declared that all agitation for military preparedness was hysterical; that we were adequately prepared.

After a while the administration changed its mind and professed to believe in the necessity for preparedness. First came an enactment to increase the regular army by 20,000. But the body of the country, and even all parts of the Democratic administration, could not change front so quickly as the head. Recruiting for the regular army lagged. Not yet have the 20,000 been secured.

The need pressed. A new national defense act, providing for still more men in the regular army, was enacted. But still the men were not forthcoming.

Suddenly and without warning the administration issued its call for mobilization of the citizen soldiery. It seemed still obsessed with the Bryan notion that an army could be created by presidential ukase.

When the call went out the government did not own enough uniforms, shoes, socks, blankets, hats, wagons, trucks, horses, mules and other things essential to equip the men called; it had made no provision for transporting the troops called to the points where they were required.

Who suffered most by this amazing lack of foresight, this leaping before looking?

Only the 135,000 patriots who believed that their country needed them for national defense; only the men who are making the great sacrifices. The whole disgraceful story may be summed up in the phrase, the administration has penalized patriotism.

True, it is accumulating, by subterfuge, a reserve of trained soldiers, but events have demonstrated that it cried "wolf" when there was no wolf. Should it be forced to cry "wolf" again, when the wolf is at the door, what will be the result?

This Overland is the world's most powerful low-priced car.

It has a 31 1/2 horsepower en bloc motor that is a perfect marvel for speed, power and endurance.

By increasing the bore of the motor from 3 1/8 to 3 3/8" we are able to offer a power plant which at 1950 R. P. M. develops full 31 1/2 horsepower.

Tests under every condition in all parts of the country demonstrate that it easily develops better than fifty miles per hour on the road.

Speed of course varies under different conditions, but in practically every instance it has been getting fifty miles an hour and with ease.

We have scores of telegrams showing that twenty to twenty-five miles per gallon of gasoline is not unusual.

The performance of this car is almost beyond belief.

Take any other low-priced car on the market. Pit it against this new Overland. Compare them for sheer speed, for abundance of power, for riding comfort and economy, and you'll find this car will back anything else clean off the boards.

That's a strong statement, but a fact nevertheless.

Try it yourself and see. Here are more important facts.

It has four-inch tires which are more than generous for a car of this size.

Not only has it a large and roomy body, but it has an attractive, up-to-date streamline body.

It has the latest and most improved system of ignition.

It has the cantilever springs—the easiest riding springs in the world.

What's more, it's complete. Not a thing to buy. You get the finest Auto-Lite electric starting and lighting system, magnetic speedometer, one-man top, demountable rims and practically every accessory found on the highest priced cars.

It only goes to prove how big production can cut cost and save you money. First come, first served. Place your order now.

ADAIR REVEALS ACHIEVEMENTS

Democratic Candidate for Governor

Opens Campaign in Twelfth

District Before Large Crowd

HAS PRAISE FOR PRES. WILSON

Predicts Sweeping Victory For

Ticket—Promises Economic

Administration if Elected

(By United Press.)

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 19.—Predicting the election of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall by the largest popular vote ever given candidates for president and vice-president, the return to the senate of John W. Kern and Thomas Taggart, and the election of the entire state ticket, John A. M. Adair, democratic candidate for governor, this afternoon formally opened the democratic campaign in Indiana. Adair spoke to a large crowd of Twelfth district democrats and members of the party from other parts of the state. The address preceded a large barbecue at Robinson Park.

The democratic candidate promised if elected governor of Indiana to drive out greed and robbery in public office, a strict enforcement for the laws of the state, an honest and economic administration, just legislation for both capital and labor, tax reform, and opposition to special privilege in every form.

Congressman Adair devoted a large part of his address to a review of the achievements of the Wilson administration characterizing the administration as a period of "more constructive legislation than other like periods in the history of the nation." He praised Wilson for having kept the nation out of war while "refusing to purchase peace at the price of injustice or dishonor."

"The destruction of Cannonism," the popular election of United States senator, an income tax, a tariff "sufficient as a revenue producer," a non-partisan tariff commission, currency reform and the Clayton anti-trust bill were pointed out by Adair as among the achievements of the Wilson administration.

"The Republican party enters the campaign without a single issue," declared the democratic candidate. Justice Hughes was scored for "laying aside his patriotism while he found fault with Wilson's policy in Mexico."

"If we are driven into a war with Mexico," said Adair, "the responsibility of that war and the blood of our boys will rest upon partisan republicans who are willing to sacrifice the country's welfare for party success."

In discussing the president's Mexican policy Mr. Adair spoke as follows:

"President Wilson has maintained a firm and fixed policy toward Mexico, a policy based upon three considerations. First, that the United States does not covet any Mexican territory and should not wage a war of aggression upon that unfortunate country. Second, that the people of Mexico should be given the utmost opportunity to restore order and establish civil government within their own borders. Third, that the people of the United States are opposed to intervention unless it is clearly evident that no other alternative exists."

Turning to the record of the Ralston state administration Adair pointed to the public service commission law, the vocational education law, the workman's compensation law, the fire marshall law, the inheritance tax law, and the registration law as achievements.

Congressman Adair declared that the progressives were not going back into the republican party but that they would either vote the progressive ticket or vote with the democrats.

HUNT REUNION.

The Hunt family reunion held yesterday at Brookside park, Indianapolis, was attended by a crowd of one hundred and twenty-five, and was considered the most successful reunion ever held. The officers elected were Miss Catherine Hunt, Indianapolis, president; G. P. Hunt of this city, vice-president; Mrs. Ella Worsham, statistician, and Allen R. Holden, secretary. The meeting next year will be held at Anderson on the Friday before the Rush county fair.

EMANON CLUB

After having had no meetings for several weeks, the meeting of the Emanon Club held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Gunn Haydon at her home in North Main street was a particularly enjoyable one. The affair was very informal, the ladies sewing and chatting. A delicious luncheon was served late in the afternoon.

After the club meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Mauzy, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Beher were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haydon.

AT WEBBS FORD

A jolly crowd of picnickers motored and drove to Webb's Ford Wednesday afternoon. Fishing was the main diversion of the afternoon. In the evening, an elaborate supper was spread in the woods. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shafer, and two children of Lincoln, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Al Fry and daughters, Lois and Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Ab Enos of Sexton, Miss Ruth Weidner and Miss Mildred Poor of Newcastle, Miss Bess Weidner of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weidner, Miss Frances Thompson, Miss Thelma Weidner, Watson Miller, Clarence Weidner and Newton Hatterman of southwest of the city.

GEORGETTE CREPE SURE MAKES FINE NIGHTIES

By MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

Again of nighties now I sing,
Of nighties sheer that closely cling,
So fine they'll pass inside a ring,
And O, they cost like anything.
New York, Aug. 19.—If there should be a shortage in the Georgette crepe output goodness knows what would ever become of us. Not only are most all our day clothes made of this filmy fabric, but all of our night clothes as well. Se we couldn't go out and we couldn't go to bed. The chances are we'd take the only course left to us and go daffy.

However, no such dire calamity presages at the moment of going to press. The Georgette crepe industry flourishes; so likewise does the diaphanous nightgown fashioned of this far from opaque material.

The Georgette crepe nightie is truly a thing of beauty, but hardly a joy forever as it scarcely has the lasting qualities of a nainsook or even a crepe de chine gown.

Some of the most exquisite models are the most simple, relying on the perfection of the material for their sole charm. One Empire model of flesh tinted Georgette is sleeveless and is bordered around the neck with a heading of fine footling. A wide band of flesh satin ribbon run under the footling makes the high waistline.

A unique finish on another flesh toned model is formed of tiny pale blue baby ribbon. One with this finish in pink, and another in mauve are also shown. All of the gowns come in white and ivory also.

Another charming finish is a tiny hemstitched banding of the Georgette itself, either in blue or mauve on either flesh gowns and pink, blue or mauve on the white.

Lavender, by the way, is rapidly superseding that erstwhile Frenchy favorite, pale blue, as a combination with flesh underwear and touches of mauve are found on nearly every smart new article of lingerie this season.

The pajama girl is not the rarity now that that she used to be. She is no longer the pink pajama girl, however, although she still is the pink of perfection. Alluring indeed are the 1916 pajamas of maize, mauve, blue or rose broche narrowly banded in lavender, all save the mauve which has a Nile green finish.

For the vacillating maid who cannot quite make up her mind between the enchanting nighties and the alluring pajamas comes a pajama nightgown, if you please. It is of pink batiste, crepe de chine or Crepe Georgette and is cut in one with a nightie top and an ending of full pantaloons like Pierrot always wears with a cunning lace edged frill around the ankles. Bifurcated fashions, also have spread to negliges, and a recent imported model has full Turkish trousers of crepe de chine, a crush taffeta girdle of contrasting shade, and a blouse and loose coat of crepe georgette. The blouse is finished around the neck with a wide fringed double ruche of the taffeta.

Partly as a lawn party, the lawn and porch were lit with pretty Japanese lanterns, while a color scheme of pink and white was elaborately carried out in the rooms of the spacious home. Games, music and contests of various kinds aided in entertaining the guests during the course of the evening. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served to the guests who included the Misses Frances Guffin, Marjorie Tittsworth, Mary Roberts, Myrtle Sefton, Marjorie Hunt and Beatrice Austen and Merle Kirkpatrick, Raymond Laughlin, Richard McManus, Rea Ging, Herschell Peters, Donald Foster and Robert Ellison.

The party was completed by an automobile ride through the surrounding country.

USE KITCHEN STOOL

Have you a comfortable place to mix cakes, puddings and other dishes? There is no reason why you should not be seated for a good deal of the cooking. A high stool is comfortable and easy to move about. If possible, a shelf or table beneath a window is a good work table for the cook or housewife.

PROGRAMS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS FOR COMING YEAR REVIEWED

Activities of Organizations Throughout the County Outlined, Revealing Variety of Interests, Most of Which Center About the History of the State, Whose Centennial is Being Celebrated This Year—Some Programs Call For Entertainment of Clubs of Neighboring Cities.

Even the women's clubs are aiding in the celebration of the centennial of the state; for prominent among the programs planned for the coming year by the clubs of the county are those dealing with phases of Indiana. Rush county, already well known for the successful and long lived literary clubs supported, can boast of exceptionally good programs for the coming year. Different phases of one general subject are to be studied by several of the clubs, miscellaneous programs by others, but most prominent in all of the numbers are the suggestions of modern times, modern writers and problems and with them interesting phases of our own state, beginning with history and bringing the state up to the present time.

Perhaps the progress of the state and the many modern writers the county has to offer, are the temptation for the club women to desert the favored literary works of the past for the newer novelists, the modern poet and their new way of writing. The possibility, too, of woman obtaining the vote has given her an added interest in problems of interest to the country and the state.

Sorosis Club

"Indiana", starting with its colonial history, will be taken up by the Sorosis club whose first meeting will be September 26th. After a short resume of colonial history, early history, and recent history of the be taken up. The beauty spots of the state will be discussed and Indiana's foremost writers reviewed. Special meetings that are to be held by the club are: the club anniversary program in November when the families of the club members will be entertained at a masquerade, a Christmas meeting, and the latter part of the year will be devoted to a miscellaneous program.

Monday Study

The entire year of the Monday Study Club of Milroy will be given over to Indiana. The early history, the writers and poets, the most attractive spots for scenery and the centennial celebrations, will all be interesting points that the members of this club will have to discuss.

Research Club

Although the program for the Research Club at Milroy is partially among its numbers are the subjects dealing with Indiana, and of up-to-date interest. October will hold an Indiana day for the club, including a discussion of points of natural interest. There will be Thanksgiving and Christmas meetings, the latter being a religious meeting. "Boys and girls" will be the feature meeting for January, when children of other nations, how to entertain children and other problems concerning children will be dealt with. The patriotic meeting in February will have as one number "The Lincoln Highway", there will be a mother's meeting, and at another time the birds, the flowers, and resources of our own state will be discussed.

Raleigh Reading Club

Each meeting of the Raleigh Reading Club will have one subject on Indiana, one subject on current events, and a miscellaneous number will complete the program. Beginning with 1816, the history of Indiana will be discussed in this way, aside from a number of other features of the state.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB

Prof. Jenkins so proved his ability last year in his lectures to the Shakespeare Club that he has been asked to return for the coming club year, when he will give a series of lectures on "The Modern Novelist," which is in the spirit of the time of favoring the modern writer. This series is anticipated with great interest, with the popularity that he has already established. The first lecture will be November 7th, and the subjects for the talks are to be "Wells, the Socialist," "Hardy, the Ironist," "Tolstoi, the Individualist," "Bennet, the Realist," "Meredith, the Feminist," and "James the Psychologist."

Coterie Club

The Coterie Club, which always has clever and moved programs, has never made out a set program, leaving them entirely to the originality of the hostess. For the coming year, though, it is practically decided to make out a program in advance, the nature of which is to be made public property later.

D. A. R.

The D. A. R., although their subjects are not yet made out, will take up the usual line of work in accordance with the purpose of the organization, dealing with historical and colonial subjects, bringing these phases of discussion up to the present day. Several interesting miscellaneous programs are also being arranged.

Ladies Musicales

Practically every line of music will be discussed and illustrated in the programs to be given by the Ladies Musicales next year. Classic music, romantic music, modern music, opera music, music of the orient, Easter music and several special features all promise an unusually interesting year for the members of this organization. Among the latter, will be a benefit concert, an afternoon with the student members (for a class of student members has been organized), an entertainment for the Connersville Musicales, a request program, Mother's Day, May Breakfast and an anniversary program. The year will be a busy but profitable one.

Tri Kappa

The members of the Tri Kappa, although not primarily a literary organization, have previous to this year enjoyed programs, interesting and profitable. The certainty or nature of the programs for this year has not yet been decided, although it is probable that the members will carry out a varied program according to their custom.

Home Economics Club

In accordance with their purpose, the members of the Home Economics Club will continue the study of foods. The general theme of study for this year (and their club year starts in January) is on food values. The greater part of their years program has already been completed, the remaining numbers, however, are discussions of the nutritive value of foods; meats, proteins, fruits, and vegetables will be taken up in this light.

Monday Circle

"The Drama" with its unlimited possibilities, is the general subject to be ably dealt with by the ladies of the Monday Circle. Beginning with early drama as far back as the Monastic, Miracle and Mystery plays, the discussions will be very inclusive. The technic of the drama the drama of different countries, early actors, reviews of plays, are all included in the early drama discussions. Shakespeare and a number of subjects relative to him, will be the programs that lead up to the

Harry Burchard of St. Paul, Ind., has leased the plant of the Elcelesior Creamery company and is preparing to operate it. Gulf Storm Strikes South Coast of Texas and Follows Bed of The Rio Grande River

STRIKES MANY ARMY CAMPS SHORT FUNERAL TO BE HERE

(By United Press.)
Galveston, Texas, August 19.—The hurricane that struck the south Texas coast late yesterday, has left ruin in its wake from the mouth of the Rio Grande to Aransas Pass, 100 miles north, according to meagre reports, available today. All land wires are down and little can be learned by wireless.

Latest reports indicated the storm is following the course of the Rio Grande, striking army camps as it advances. At nine o'clock it was said to be centered over Del Rio, 50 miles above Eagle Pass.

end of the year to the modern drama. During these programs, the modern dramatist and the new art of the stage in its different phases are to be brought out. With a background of early dramatic work already formed, the stage of today will be particularly interesting. Too, on June 4th, the Carey Club, a similar organization in Connerville, will be entertained by the ladies of the Monday Circle.

Arrangements have also been made for Mrs. Demarchus Brown, who added great interest to the Monday Circle meetings last year, to give a series of talks before the members of the club. These lectures will be interspersed between the regular meetings.

No fruit jar that has been standing for weeks is free from germs. Before putting fruit in them they should be thoroughly sterilized by boiling in soda water.

When marking linen handkerchiefs with indelible ink, first starch the handkerchiefs, and iron them smooth. Then you can mark them clearly with ease.

When making egg custard pies always heat the milk to the boiling point before mixing it with the eggs. If this rule is followed the undercrust will always be crisp.

When you have no one to hold the yarn while you wind it, place two flatirons the proper distance apart, on the table, stretch the yarn to them and wind it conveniently.

ART SMITH MADE
BIG HIT WITH JAPS

Indiana Aviator Has Received Many Gifts of Appreciation From the People of That Country.

TRINKETS FROM COUNT OKOMA

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 19.—Art Smith, the aviator from Fort Wayne, Ind., who made such a hit with the Japs by his daring flights, and who looks forward to several more weeks in a hospital here as the result of a broken leg, has brought home with him from Japan a trunk full of trinkets, favors and medals—but most of all he prizes a little gift from a Japanese girl.

"Me no never bad girl," wrote Art's little admirer, fearing that the American might misinterpret her interest. "Maybe possibly Americans do not understand Japanese girl," she said. But Art Smith understood. He wrote back that he appreciated deeply her gift and would be delighted to show it to his mother.

The girl was only 12 years old, and the gift consisted of a little wooden picture frame enclosing a colored postal card. There was also a paper lacquer box with a piece of crochet work.

Art Smith did not make his appeal alone to the Japanese children and common folk. He exhibited today a collection of wonderful medals. But most wonderful of all was a trinket from Count Okoma, showing a Japanese goddess trailing a string of thirty-two diamonds through a golden sky. The thirty-two gems represent the thirty-two meter wind in which Art flew so bravely at Tokyo before the Mikado's court.

BANQUET FOR THE COUNTY PLANNED

Pitch-in Dinner Will be Held on Streets of Rushville, Tuesday Evening, August 29.

COUNTY WILL BE CANVASSED.

Committees Will Visit Every Township Monday and Invite Farmers to Participate.

A community dinner on the streets of the city at which at least two or three thousand people will be present is being planned for a week from next Tuesday evening. It will be what is commonly known as a pitch-in dinner. The uppermost idea is that each shall "pitch in" his or her share but each who contributes a portion is also expected to "pitch in" and eat all they can.

Last night committees were appointed to canvass the county in automobiles next Monday and extend personal invitations to farmers to attend and ask those farmers to urge all of their neighbors to be present. The meeting last night at the council chamber was the second successive session to consider the community dinner.

A finance committee was appointed and A. L. Gary selected to act as toastmaster for the short speaking program that is to be arranged for after the banquet. It was also voted to establish a check room in the court house so that farmers might leave their baskets if they came to Rushville some time before the banquet.

It was determined that the tables should be set four ways up from the streets from the corner of Main and Second streets, where the band stand would be situated. The permission will be gained to rope the streets off during the time for the banquet and an effort will be made to have them swept clean. It is hoped to arrange for the regular band concert on that night instead of Wednesday night.

One method of determining how many will participate in the dinner is to have a tent at the fair grounds next week at which each person who expects to be present will be asked to register.

A flag will be given the township delegation which has the most people. Each person eating will be asked to sign his or her ticket and the name of the township from which they come. The city of Rushville will not be allowed to compete.

The finance committee appointed to raise funds to defray the slight expense of the banquet is composed of Walter Easley, R. E. Harrold and Will Abercrombie. The invitation committee which will tour the county Monday was divided into four parts and each division assigned three townships. In each division is an automobile owner. The committee follows:

Charles A. Mauzy, L. L. Allen, V. C. Bodine and Earl H. Payne, assigned to Orange, Noble and Union townships; Roy Jones, Will M. Bliss and F. E. Wolcott, assigned to Rushville, Anderson and Richland; Walter Hubbard, Jack Knecht and John Moore, assigned to Jackson, Center and Washington; A. Bogue, Glen Miller, Matt Walker and H. G. Hackman (to go in Clark & Caldwell's car), assigned to Ripley, Posey and Walker.

Members of the committee are requested to pick up other members for the trip if possible. The entertainment committee will meet Monday evening in the council chamber to report what progress was made.

Committees have been quietly at work on the plan for a few weeks.

IN CHARGE OF GRAND JURY

Wilbur Ryman of Muncie, Related Here Goes After Grafters.

Wilbur Ryman of Muncie, brother of Mrs. Wilbur Stant of 219 North Spencer street, is conducting a special session of the Delaware county grand jury which is supposed to be investigating further the Muncie graft cases. Mr. Ryman and his family spent last week end here at the Stant home. J. Frank Mann, prosecuting attorney, insisted on having charge of the grand jury yesterday and had to be led out of the room by a deputy sheriff. Because of his activity in the graft investigations, Mr. Ryman's house was damaged by dynamite last March but no member of his family was injured.

JURY'S VERDICT IS FOR ALLEINE MOORE

Other Charges Growing Out of the Trouble With William Dugan May Not be Tried.

JURORS OUT A LONG TIME

The jury which tried the provoke case against Alleine Moore in Squire Kratzer's court yesterday found her not guilty. The jury was out some little time in reaching a verdict. The case required all of the day as considerable trouble was experienced in getting a jury. The charge was filed by William Dugan.

As this was believed to have been the strongest case Dugan had against the Moore family, it is not likely that the other case will be tried, according to Prosecutor Stevens. Harley Frazier acted as special judge in this trial. The various cases growing out of the family feud have attracted considerable attention and occupied much of the court's time.

30,000 SOLDIERS AT BROWNSVILLE SAFE

Wireless Received at Dallas, Texas, Today Reports None Was Injured in Hurricane.

CAUSEWAY BADLY DAMAGED

(By United Press.) Dallas, Texas, August 19.—The southwestern telegraph and telephone companies received a wireless from Brownsville and Galveston shortly before noon today stating that 30,000 national guardsmen there are safe. No news was received from the hurricane in that region.

The telephone companies' wires are working as far as Sinton, 60 miles north of Corpus Christi, and workmen have strung a temporary wire from Sinton to the bay shore opposite Corpus Christi. They reported the causeway and the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad bridge connecting Corpus Christi with the mainland badly damaged. The workmen at last reports were forcing their way across the bay with a cable and expect to establish direct communication with Corpus Christi and San Antonio late today.

Marriage licenses were issued today to Luther D. Nixon and Myla Gordon; Earl Perkins and Nila Manor.

CENTENNIAL HIGHWAY DAY

Plan is For Motorists From all Over State to Converge at Indianapolis for Parade

M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier State Automobile association, is making a booster trip through this section of the state arousing interest in Indiana centennial highway day October 12, which will be a feature of the state celebration in Indianapolis, climaxing all the county celebrations.

The central idea of the scheme, which was conceived by Dr. Harold of Richmond, a great highway enthusiast, is for motorists to gather along the roads leading into Indianapolis and proceed into the capital, converging at a central point from which a parade will be made.

Mr. Noblet lately held a meeting at Shelbyville and was assured the support of the Shelby County Motor club in arranging for the movement. Motor clubs elsewhere are preparing for the event with great energy. Other cities to be visited in this part of Indiana are Greensburg, Batesville, Versailles, Aurora, Brookville, Liberty, Connersville, Winchester, Union City and Portland.

Divisional chairman of the parades have been appointed for the National Old Trails Road, Dixie Highway, Pikes Peak Ocean to Ocean Highway, Hoosier Dixie Highway, Jackson Highway, Michigan Road, Range Line Road, Noblesville Pike, Pendleton Pike, Rushville Pike, Shelbyville Pike and the Three Notch Road.

The different sections of the parades will proceed to Indianapolis headed by their bands, with cars decorated with bunting of National colors and with pennants and signs of the various towns represented. This will be the largest assemblage of automobiles ever gotten together in any celebration.

All brass bands heading the various delegations will be consolidated in Indianapolis and march at the head of the parade. It is estimated that there will be at least one thousand musicians who will be under the direction of W. S. Mitchell of Indianapolis.

Lee Nusbaum, of Richmond, will drill the band in the eastern part of the state, and Professor Cosner of Bloomington, will direct the band in the southern part of the state. Cleo Hunt, of Brownsburg will assist the musical committee.

Governor Samuel M. Ralston will be chairman of the centennial highway day celebration. The various heads of committees to work out the plans for the celebration will begin work immediately.

M. E. Noblet, secretary of the Hoosier Motor Club, will be parade organizer. Divisional chairmen for the important roads in the state have been elected as follows: Old Trails road, Horace Kramer, Richmond, and Charles L. McKee, Terre Haute, Dixie Highway, W. Edward Showers, Bloomington; J. A. DISAGREES WITH DR. A. F. NELSON

Dr. J. Harvey Slayter Disputes What State Veterinarian Said About His Serum.

OFFERS $100 FOR THE PROOF

Declares His Product is Made and Tested Under the Government's Supervision.

Dr. Harvey Slayter of the Slayter Serum company, who is in the city, takes exceptions to Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian. Dr. Nelson in a letter to local veterinarians "knocked" the Slayter company, and advised the farmers to know what they were doing in using their serum. The fight between the veterinarian's office and the serum company is looked upon with interest here since Rush county is the banner hog producing county of the state.

The statement issued by Dr. Slayter today is as follows: "We will pay $100 to Dr. Nelson, or anyone who will produce an advertisement of ours where the cost will be 72 cents to immunize a pig weighing 50 to 100 pounds. Dr. Nelson says we wrote such an ad. Let him produce it. Our advertisement has appeared in this paper for two or three days. The farmers should see what it says about the price.

"The cost is only two cents extra to make a hog permanently immune. The single method is not recommended by the Slayter Serum company. Dr. Nelson attacked us last fall in a Hartford City newspaper. It makes business good; keep it up doctor.

"We will be glad to compare the results of our serum with that of any company. We have a list of names and addresses of hundreds of farmers who have used our serum and virus, with date and number of hogs. We will gladly supply this list to anyone. Our product is all made and tested under government supervision, License No. 93.

"The United States Department of Agriculture, through its investigators, Drs. Dorset, Niles and McBride discovered anti-hog cholera serum and informed the Indiana state department as well as others how to make it. Is there any better authority to test serum and regurgitate dose? Our serum must stand the highest test to be given in doses of 20 c. c. for 100 pound pigs.

"If the Rush county farmers are in need of a guardian to keep them from being 'gulled' would it not be advisable to elect one? It does not belong to the office of the state veterinarian. We offer to vaccinate free of charge six or twelve shoats if the owner will place them with hogs sick with cholera to eat, sleep, and run with them. If they die we will pay for them. Results count. Watch the results of our serum."

A. D. Spurlin of Maywood, who will be in charge of the serum making of the National Serum company, which is to be established here, today replied to charges in Dr. Nelson's letter yesterday that he was "the only person within this state who totally disregards the law." Mr. Spurlin said he has been working in this county for some time and has a large number of satisfied customers. He declared opposition to him was aroused because he guaranteed his work. He declared he had been refused a license. A state law says serum may not be administered for pay except by licensed veterinarians. He says he sells the serum and then administers it free of charge.

WOLFE'S FUNERAL HELD

Masons and G. A. R. Attend Last Sad Rites Over Veteran

The funeral services of the late Col. Edward H. Wolfe were conducted this afternoon in the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. D. Ira Lambert. The Masonic lodge of this city was joined by members of the lodges over the county and attended in a body. The fast dwindling membership of the G. A. R. was represented, most of the members attending in a body. Many Masons from over the state were present and it was one of the largest lodge funerals ever held here. The active pall bearers were Lee Pyle, Oliver Ong, Earl H. Payne, Samuel L. Traubne, Harry Beale and Ed Pitman.

Merchants Add $130 to Money

Hung on Wire for County

Races at Fair Next Week

EACH PURSE IS WORTH $175

The merchants of Rushville have sweetened the purses of the county road races at the county fair next week so that each one will be worth $115, as compared to $50, the purse which has heretofore been given by the fair association. Business south of First street raised $65 for the road races and not to be outdone the merchants above First street raised an equal amount. Sixty-five dollars has been added to the $50 offered by the fair to the road trot set for Tuesday afternoon, making the purse $115. The pacers will go for a similar amount on Friday afternoon. The two races are now well fixed and there is every indication of them being the best on the week's card.

It was stated today that there were more entries in the fine arts department Thursday night than there were at any previous fair and more are to come. Concessions began to arrive today and the fair grounds began to take on new life.

BOY HITS REAR END OF STANDING AUTO

Russell Webber, 13, Suffers Severe Scalp Wound When he Collides With Machine.

WHILE RIDING A BICYCLE

Russell Webber, 13 years old, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Webber, 525 West Fifth street, was painfully hurt last night when he ran into the rear of an automobile while riding a bicycle. The accident occurred in front of the Dr. D. H. Dean residence in Main street. He sustained a long scalp wound and was bruised in the fall.

The rear light on the automobile was lighted but the boy failed to see it and crashed into the heavy machine, which was parked next to the curb. It was not found necessary to take any stitches in the wound. The bicycle was considerably damaged as a result of the collision.

The Equitable Surety company has filed an account suit against Fred White and Samuel H. Colter, demanding $75.

WESTERN RAIL HEADS CALLED

President Summons Additional Executives in Effort to Settle Impending Strike

STANDS PAT ON HIS DEMANDS

Wilson Issues Statement After R.

R. Presidents Tell Him Arbitration is Fair Means

(By United Press.) Washington, August 19.—President Wilson this afternoon summoned additional western railroad presidents to the white house.

The president took the action, as was stated, on the representation of the 33 executives who met with him today, that they can not act for all of the important roads, but for only their own roads.

President Wilson in a formal statement of his proposal for settlement of the difficulties between the railroads of the country and the railroad brotherhoods, indicated his intention to stand pat on his insistence that the 8-hour day be granted the workers.

"This seems to me a practical and entirely fair program," he said, "and I think the public has a right to expect its acceptance." "The 8-hour day now undoubtedly has the sanction of the judgment of society in its favor and should be adopted as a basis for wages even where the actual work to be done can not be completed within eight hours," the president said.

At the same time the president proposed that the demand for extra pay for overtime and all other issues be postponed, pending an investigation and suggested that if necessary, he would obtain authority from congress to appoint a body of impartial investigators to probe the whole question. This body, he said, would report to congress though without making any recommendations.

His statement was issued just after 33 railway heads had assembled at the white house to give their reply to the proposition. President Wilson of the C. B. & Q. told the president that they continued to stand for arbitration and did not believe it right to ask them to abandon that principle.

President Wilson still had a serious problem to solve today if he prevented the threatened railroad strike.

That was the situation when 31 railway presidents, 30 railway managers prepared to leave their hotel today for the white house where President Wilson waited to go over the matter once more with them. They hadn't slept much, most of them having been engaged in conferences of their own up to a late hour last night.

The upshot of their conferences was not to accept the president's proposal for settlement of the controversy with the employees. They were prepared to hold out for arbitration, they said.

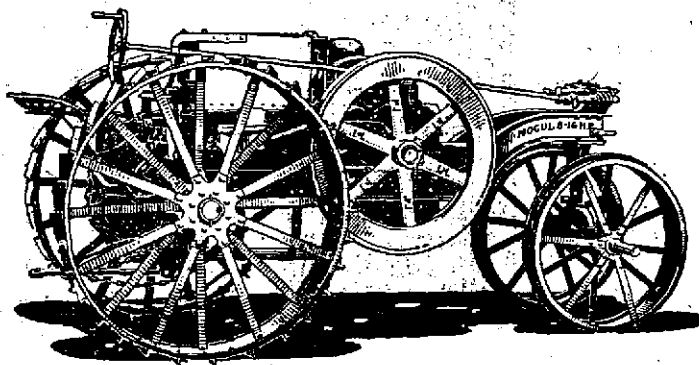

In a lengthy statement of their position which they had ready to lay before the president, the railroad heads claim they can not yield the principle of arbitration.

They desire peace, they say, but declare such peace must be built upon arbitration. It appeared that the situation, if it is to be solved, must result now in mutual concessions. The railroad executives are willing to do this. The employees, it became known today, are willing also to tarry a while and consider the question of possible trades.

HURL BACK GERMAN LINE NEAR SOMME

British Troops Make Biggest Gain
 Friday Night That Has Been Made Since Opening.

ENEMY LOSES ON WIDE FRONT

(By United Press.)
 London, Aug. 19.—British troops hurled back the German line north of the Somme last night in one of the biggest gains made by the allies since the opening smash of the great offensive.
 The Germans were thrown back on practically every sector of a 6-mile front, extending from a point south of Thiepval to the point where the British lines link up with the French near Guillemont.
 The greatest British gain was scored from the Foreaux wood eastward to the junction point with the French. General Haig announced this afternoon a British advance on a 2 mile front in this region, penetrating German trenches to a depth of from 200 to 600 yards.
 The capture of the western outskirts of the village of Duillemont and important advances north, northwest and east of the village, leaves the Germans still clinging to the ruins of a village in a deep valley and in danger of being cut off and entirely surrounded.

Tariff Real Issue
In the final analysis, the campaign this year will be fought out on the tariff question. The contest will hark back to the real dividing line between the Democratic and Republican parties. There is no loyal Democrat who, when pinned down to it, will not admit that he regards a protective tariff unconstitutional. President Wilson has said as much; so have many national platforms of the Democratic party.

Mr. M. Adair, Democratic congressman and candidate for governor, has been quoted as saying in this campaign that the Underwood bill is a protective measure. If he said it, he is not a true Democrat or else he is misleading the people.
In his speech opening the campaign at Fort Wayne this afternoon he said the Underwood bill was "sufficient as a revenue producer."

A tariff designed purely to produce revenue is one so adjusted as to insure the importation of each article mentioned in the schedules.
Without a doubt the importation from abroad of products previously Chillicothe, Ohio—"Nothing pleases me more than to speak a word of praise for Cardui, the woman's tonic," says Mrs. Ed Davis, of this town,

"for I firmly believe that it snatched me from the grave."

I have been married 14 years, and had two children. After the youngest was born, I was not able to walk, and for four years, I was not strong enough to stand on my feet five minutes at the time, without something to support me.

Nothing seemed to do me any good, until, finally, I commenced using Cardui, the woman's tonic. I only used about four bottles, but, today I am well, can do my work, and walk as far as I want to.

I can never praise Cardui enough, and my neighbors cannot get done wondering at the change in me.

You, too, can depend on Cardui, because Cardui is a gentle, harmless, vegetable tonic, that can do you nothing but good.

Prepared from vegetable herbs, Cardui has a specific effect on the womanly constitution, and puts strength where it is needed.
Try Cardui.

manufactured in the United States will in as great a proportion as the amount of the imports restrict production at home. The natural conclusion is then, that a tariff for revenue only is purely and simply one for the single and solitary purpose of having the merchandiser we consume manufactured beyond the seas and sold to use by foreign tradem-en. In other words, a tariff for revenue only is one to deliberately accomplish the result of closing American shops and throwing American labor out of employment.

And much to the mystification of the Democratic statesmen, the records will show that tariff revenues are greater under a protective tariff than under a tariff for revenue only. The American people have more money with which to buy and they purchase luxuries which they can not afford when home production is brought in direct competition with the cheaper competition of Europe.

Mr. Hughes's speech at Detroit stirred up an unwonted activity at the meeting of the President's Cabinet on the following day. "After a long discussion," the Washington newspapers tell us, a telegram was sent to Mr. Hughes by Acting Secretary of Commerce, Sweet denying some of the Republican leader's statements. It will not be long before we shall have Mr. Lansing writing notes to Mr. Hughes threatening him with "strict accountability."

Senator Walsh of Montana will run the Democratic headquarters at Chicago, Roger Sullivan to the contrary nevertheless, and notwithstanding. A day or two before his appointment to this job Senator Walsh made a speech in Washington condemning the selection of a candidate for the Presidency from the bench. His reward for thus attacking Hughes was promptly forthcoming.

Matthew Hale charges that Hughes needs the aid of Penrose and Perkins. And he will get it.
Wilson, on the other hand, needs the aid of Charlie Murphy much more than Hughes needs the aid of any man—and he will not get it.

The Hughes campaign through the West succeeded in putting the administration on the defensive with the two first speeches.

The list of published "notables" who attended the Indianapolis conference of Progressives totaled just thirteen—which is a most unlucky number.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

How the Wilson Administration Has Penalized Patriotism

"Having in view the possibility of further aggression upon the territory of the United States from Mexico and the necessity for the proper protection of that frontier," President Wilson, on June 18, called out the mobile arms of the National Guard for federal service.

He did not call them out at their existing peace strength, but at war strength, which is practically double.
Lacking a system of reserves, the National Guard organizations immediately had to start a campaign of recruiting, to bring about the desired increase in their numbers.

Patriotic young citizens, under the urge of the cry, "Your country needs you," volunteered for service in gratifying numbers. According to Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, the result is that about 135,000 citizen soldiers have been mustered into the federal service and are now on the Mexican border or in camp in their home states. There may be more, but the administration refuses to make known the exact figures.

The movement is costing the public treasury many millions of dollars; it is costing the individual citizen soldiers many millions more. They went to the front believing the cry, "Your country needs you," for war service.
They sacrificed advancement in their civil occupations, severed home ties, suffered, in thousands of instances, great financial loss. The less patriotic, who did not believe the cry, or believing, declined to make sacrifices, fatten at home on these losses.

The real purposes of the call are slowly developing. They are two in number:

First, a patrol of the border to do the work which President Wilson's friend, Carranza, finds it impossible to do. Because the recognized government in Mexico is too ineffective to keep its own citizens in check and prevent them murdering Americans on American soil, the American government undertakes the costly task of doing that work for them. The murder of American citizens on Mexican soil is another matter. Carranza may go as far as he likes in that direction.

Second, a purpose of the mobilization on the border and in the camps is to train citizens to perform effective military service. The regular military establishment of the nation is manifestly too small for the actual military needs. To this extent the cry, "Your country needs you," was correct.

But these facts were not made clear when the call was issued. The idea was promulgated that men were needed for actual war service; not for military training. Deceit was practiced.

Opposing in the open legislation for universal military service, the administration by its acts has established what in essence is a system of compulsory military service. It is a system all the more vicious because it operates only against the patriotic, whereas a legalized universal training system equalizes the burden of military service among all men and all classes of men.

When, in 1914, Europe plunged into the greatest war of all history, and conditions in Mexico grew intolerable, intelligent men realized the fact that it was incumbent on this nation to build up its tiny regular army and put its other military resources in condition for use. National safety demanded this. And yet, in December of that year, four months after the European war began, President Wilson went before Congress and declared that all agitation for military preparedness was hysterical; that we were adequately prepared.

After a while the administration changed its mind and professed to believe in the necessity for preparedness. First came an enactment to increase the regular army by 20,000.
But the body of the country, and even all parts of the Democratic administration, could not change front so quickly as the head. Recruiting for the regular army lagged. Not yet have the 20,000 been secured.

The need pressed. A new national defense act, providing for still more men in the regular army, was enacted.
But still the men were not forthcoming.

Suddenly and without warning the administration issued its call for mobilization of the citizen soldiery. It seemed still obsessed with the Bryan notion that an army could be created by presidential ukase.

When the call went out the government did not own enough uniforms, shoes, socks, blankets, hats, wagons, trucks, horses, mules and other things essential to equip the men called; it had made no provision for transporting the troops called to the points where they were required.

Who suffered most by this amazing lack of foresight, this leaping before looking?

Only the 135,000 patriots who believed that their country needed them for national defense; only the men who are making the great sacrifices.

The whole disgraceful story may be summed up in the phrase, the administration has penalized patriotism.

True, it is accumulating, by subterfuge, a reserve of trained soldiers, but events have demonstrated that it cried "wolf" when there was no wolf.
Should it be forced to cry "wolf"
again, when the wolf is at the door, what will be the result?

This Overland is the world's most powerful low-priced car. It has a 31 1/2 horsepower en bloc motor that is a perfect marvel for speed, power and endurance.

By increasing the bore of the motor from 3 1/8 to 3 3/8 we are able to offer a power plant which at 1950 R. P. M. develops full 31 1/2 horsepower.

Tests under every condition in all parts of the country demonstrate that it easily develops better than fifty miles per hour on the road.

Speed of course varies under different conditions, but in practically every instance it has been getting fifty miles an hour and with ease.

We have scores of telegrams showing that twenty to twenty-five miles per gallon of gasoline is not unusual.

The performance of this car is almost beyond belief.

Take any other low-priced car on the market. Pit it against this new Overland. Compare them for sheer speed, for abundance of power, for riding comfort and economy, and you'll find this car will back anything else clean off the boards.

That's a strong statement, but a fact nevertheless.

Try it yourself and see. Here are more important facts.

It has four-inch tires which are more than generous for a car of this size.

Not only has it a large and roomy body, but it has an attractive, up-to-date streamline body.

It has the latest and most improved system of ignition.

It has the cantilever springs—the easiest riding springs in the world.

What's more, it's complete. Not a thing to buy. You get the finest Auto-Lite electric starting and lighting system, magnetic speedometer, one-man top, demountable rims and practically every accessory found on the highest priced cars.

It only goes to prove how big production can cut cost and save you money.

Turning to the record of the Ralston state administration Adair pointed to the public service commission law, the vocational education law, the workman's compensation law, the fire marshal law, the inheritance tax law, and the registration law as achievements.

Congressman Adair declared that the progressives were not going back into the republican party but that they would either vote the progressive ticket or vote with the democrats.

ADAIR REVEALS ACHIEVEMENTS

Democratic Candidate for Governor
Opens Campaign in Twelfth District Before Large Crowd

HAS PRAISE FOR PRES. WILSON

Predicts Sweeping Victory For Ticket—Promises Economic Administration if Elected

(By United Press.)

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 19.—Predicting the election of Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall by the largest popular vote ever given candidates for president and vice-president, the return to the senate of John W. Kern and Thomas Taggart, and the election of the entire state ticket, John A. M. Adair, democratic candidate for governor, this afternoon formally opened the democratic campaign in Indiana. Adair spoke to a large crowd of Twelfth district democrats and members of the party from other parts of the state. The address preceded a large barbecue at Robinson Park.

The democratic candidate promised if elected governor of Indiana to drive out greed and robbery in public office, a strict enforcement for the laws of the state, an honest and economic administration, just legislation for both capital and labor, tax reform, and opposition to special privilege in every form.

Congressman Adair devoted a large part of his address to a review of the achievements of the Wilson administration characterizing the administration as a period of "more constructive legislation than other like periods in the history of the nation." He praised Wilson for having kept the nation out of war while "refusing to purchase peace at the price of injustice or dishonor."

The "destruction of Cannonism," the popular election of United States senator, an income tax, a tariff "sufficient as a revenue producer," a non-partisan tariff commission, currency reform and the Clayton anti-trust bill were pointed out by Adair as among the achievements of the Wilson administration.

"The Republican party enters the campaign without a single issue," declared the democratic candidate. Justice Hughes was scored for "laying aside his patriotism while he found fault with Wilson's policy in Mexico."

"If we are driven into a war with Mexico," said Adair, "the responsibility of that war and the blood of our boys will rest upon partisan republicans who are willing to sacrifice the country's welfare for party success."

In discussing the president's Mexican policy Mr. Adair spoke as follows:

"President Wilson has maintained a firm and fixed policy toward Mexico, a policy based upon three considerations. First, that the United States does not covet any Mexican territory and should not wage a war of aggression upon that unfortunate country. Second, that the people of Mexico should be given the utmost opportunity to restore order and establish civil government within their own borders. Third, that the people of the United States are opposed to intervention unless it is clearly evident that no other alternative exists."

Turning to the record of the Ralston state administration Adair pointed to the public service commission law, the vocational education law, the workman's compensation law, the fire marshal law, the inheritance tax law, and the registration law as achievements.

Congressman Adair declared that the progressives were not going back into the republican party but that they would either vote the progressive ticket or vote with the democrats.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served to the guests who included the Misses Frances Guffin, Marjorie Tittsworth, Mary Roberts, Myrtle Sefton, Marjorie Hunt and Beatrice Austen and Merle Kirkpatrick, Raymond Laughlin, Richard McManus, Rea Ginz, Herschell Peters, Donald Foster and Robert Ellison.

USE KITCHEN STOOL
Have you a comfortable place to mix cakes, puddings and other dishes? There is no reason why you should not be seated for a good deal of the cooking. A high stool is comfortable and easy to move about. If possible, a shelf or table beneath a window is a good work table for the cook or housewife.

PROGRAMS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS FOR COMING YEAR REVIEWED

Activities of Organizations Throughout the County Outlined, Revealing Variety of Interests, Most of Which Center About the History of the State, Whose Centennial is Being Celebrated This Year—Some Programs Call For Entertainment of Clubs of Neighboring Cities.

Even the women's clubs are aiding in the celebration of the centennial of the state; for prominent among the programs planned for the coming year by the clubs of the county are those dealing with phases of Indiana. Rush county, already well known for the successful and long lived literary clubs supported, can boast of exceptionally good programs for the coming year. Different phases of one general subject are to be studied by several of the clubs, miscellaneous programs by others, but most prominent in all of the numbers are the suggestions of modern times, modern writers and problems and with their interesting phases of our own state, beginning with history and bringing the state up to the present time.

Perhaps the progress of the state and the many modern writers the county has to offer, are the temptation for the club women to desert the favored literary works of the past for the newer novelists, the modern poet and their new way of writing. The possibility, too, of woman obtaining the vote has given her an added interest in problems of interest to the country and the state.

Sorosis Club
"Indiana", starting with its colonial history, will be taken up by the Sorosis club whose first meeting will be September 26th. After a short resume of colonial history, early history, and recent history of the state will be discussed and Indiana's foremost writers reviewed. Special meetings that are to be held by the club are: the club anniversary program in November when the families of the club members will be entertained at a masquerade, a Christmas meeting, and the latter part of the year will be devoted to a miscellaneous program.

Monday Study
The entire year of the Monday Study Club of Milroy will be given over to Indiana. The early history, the writers and poets, the most attractive spots for scenery and the centennial celebrations, will all be interesting points that the members of this club will have to discuss.

Research Club
Although the program for the Research Club at Milroy is partially among its numbers are the subjects dealing with Indiana, and of up-to-date interest. October will hold an Indiana day for the club, including a discussion of points of natural interest. There will be Thanksgiving and Christmas meetings, the latter being a religious meeting. "Boys and girls" will be the feature meeting for January, when children of other nations, how to entertain children and other problems concerning children will be dealt with. The patriotic meeting in February will have as one number "The Lincoln Highway", there will be a mother's meeting, and at another time the birds, the flowers, and resources of our own state will be discussed.

Raleigh Reading Club
Each meeting of the Raleigh Reading Club will have one subject on Indiana, one subject on current events, and a miscellaneous number will complete the program. Beginning with 1816, the history of Indiana will be discussed in this way, aside from a number of other features of the state.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB
Prof. Jenkins so proved his ability last year in his lectures to the Shakespeare Club that he has been asked to return for the coming

club year, when he will give a series of lectures on "The Modern Novelist," which is in the spirit of the time of favoring the modern writer. This series is anticipated with great interest, with the popularity that he has already established. The first lecture will be November 7th, and the subjects for the talks are to be "Wells, the Socialist," "Hardy, the Ironist," "Tolstoi, the Individualist," "Dennet, the Realist," "Meredith, the Feminist," and "James the Psychologist."

Coterie Club
The Coterie Club, which always has clever and moved programs, has never made out a set program, leaving them entirely to the originality of the hostess. For the coming year, though, it is practically decided to make out a program in advance, the nature of which is to be made public property later.

D. A. R.
The D. A. R., although their subjects are not yet made out, will take up the usual line of work in accordance with the purpose of the organization, dealing with historical and colonial subjects, bringing these phases of discussion up to the present day. Several interesting miscellaneous programs are also being arranged.

Ladies Musicales
Practically every line of music will be discussed and illustrated in the programs to be given by the Ladies Musicales next year. Classic music, romantic music, modern music, opera music, music of the orient, Easter music and several special features all promise an unusually interesting year for the members of this organization. Among the latter, will be a benefit concert, an afternoon with the student members (for a class of student members has been organized), an entertainment for the Connersville Musicales, a request program, Mother's Day, May Breakfast and an anniversary program. The year will be a busy but profitable one.

Tri Kappa
The members of the Tri Kappa, although not primarily a literary organization, have previous to this year enjoyed programs, interesting and profitable. The certainty or nature of the programs for this year has not yet been decided, although it is probable that the members will carry out a varied program according to their custom.

Home Economics Club
In accordance with their purpose, the members of the Home Economics Club will continue the study of foods. The general theme of study for this year (and their club year starts in January) is on food values. The greater part of their years program has already been completed, the remaining numbers, however, are discussions of the nutritive value of foods: meats, proteins, fruits, and vegetables will be taken up in this light.

Monday Circle
"The Drama" with its unlimited possibilities, is the general subject to be ably dealt with by the ladies of the Monday Circle. Beginning with early drama as far back as the Monastie, Miracle and Mystery plays, the discussions will be very inclusive. The technic of the drama, the drama of different countries, early actors, reviews of plays, are all included in the early drama discussions. Shakespeare and a number of subjects relative to him, will be the programs that lead up at the

GEORGETTE CREPE SURE MAKES FINE NIGHTIES

By MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)
Again of nighties now I sing,
Of nighties sheer that closely cling,
So fine they'll pass inside a ring,
And O, they cost like anything.
New York, Aug. 19.—If there should be a shortage in the Georgetown crepe output goodness knows what would ever become of us. Not only are most all our day clothes made of this filmy fabric, but all of our night clothes as well. So we couldn't go out and we couldn't go to bed. The chances are we'd take the only course left to us and go daffy.

However, no such dire calamity presages at the moment of going to press. The Georgetown crepe industry flourishes; so likewise does the diaphanous nightgown fashioned of this far from opaque material.

The Georgetown crepe nightie is truly a thing of beauty, but hardly a joy forever as it scarcely has the lasting qualities of a nainsook or even a crepe de chine gown.

Some of the most exquisite models are the most simple, relying on the perfection of the material for their sole charm. One Empire model of flesh tinted Georgetown is sleeveless and is bordered around the neck with a heading of fine footing. A wide band of flesh satin ribbon run under the footing makes the high waistline.

A unique finish on another flesh toned model is formed of tiny pale blue baby ribbon. One with this finish in pink, and another in mauve are also shown. All of the gowns come in white and ivory also.

Another charming finish is a tiny hemstitched banding of the Crepe Georgetown itself, either in blue or mauve on either flesh gowns and pink, blue or mauve on the white.

Lavender, by the way, is rapidly superseding that erstwhile Frenchy Favorite, pale blue, as a combination with flesh underwear and touches of mauve are found on nearly every smart new article of lingerie this season.

The pajama girl is not the rarity now that that she used to be. She is no longer the pink pajama girl, however, although she still is the pink of perfection. Alluring indeed are the 1916 pajamas of maize, mauve, blue or rose broche narrowly banded in lavender, all save the mauve which has a Nile green finish.

For the vacillating maid who cannot quite make up her mind between the enchanting nighties and the alluring pajamas comes a pajama nightgown, if you please. It is of pink batiste, crepe de chine or Crepe Georgetown and is cut in one with a nightie top and an ending of full pantaloons like Pierrot always wears with a cunning lace edged frill around the ankles. Bifurcated fashions, also have spread to negliges, and a recent imported model has full Turkish trousers of crepe de chine, a crush taffeta girdle of contrasting shade, and a blouse and loose coat of crepe Georgetown. The blouse is finished around the neck with a wide fringed double ruche of the taffeta.

Harry Burchard of St. Paul, Ind., has leased the plant of the Elgersdor Creamery company and is preparing to operate it. Mr. Burchard is an experienced creamery man and is preparing to take care of all the cream the farmers here can bring to the plant. He is now in the city overhauling the plant and hopes to have the plant in operation by some time next week.

The plant has stood idle for a long time and as a result some of the machinery was in bad condition. Mr. Burchard is adjusting the machinery and giving the place a complete cleaning. He will have the large churn in operation and believes he can make a success of the creamery.

HURRICANE LEAVES RUIN IN ITS WAKE

Gulf Storm Strikes South Coast of Texas and Follows Bed of The Rio Grande River

STRIKES MANY ARMY CAMPS

(By United Press.)
Galveston, Texas, August 19.—The hurricane that struck the south Texas coast late yesterday, has left ruin in its wake from the mouth of the Rio Grande to Aransas Pass, 100 miles north, according to meagre reports available today. All land wires are down and little can be learned by wireless.

Latest reports indicated the storm is following the course of the Rio Grande, striking army camps as it advances. At nine o'clock it was said to be centered over Del Rio, 50 miles above Eagle Pass.

end of the year to the modern drama. During these programs, the modern dramatist and the new art of the stage in its different phases are to be brought out. With a background of early dramatic work already formed, the stage of today will be particularly interesting. Too, on June 4th, the Carey Club, a similar organization in Connersville, will be entertained by the ladies of the Monday Circle.

Arrangements have also been made for Mrs. Demarchus Brown, who added great interest to the Monday Circle meetings last year, to give a series of talks before the members of the club. These lectures will be interspersed between the regular meetings.

AROUND THE HOUSE

No fruit jar that has been standing for weeks is free from germs. Before putting fruit in them they should be thoroughly sterilized by boiling in soda water.

When marking linen handkerchiefs with indelible ink, first stretch the handkerchiefs, and iron them smooth. Then you can mark them clearly with ease.

When making egg custard pies always heat the milk to the boiling point before mixing it with the eggs. If this rule is followed the undercrust will always be crisp.

When you have no one to hold the yarn while you wind it, place two flatirons the proper distance apart, on the table, stretch the yarn to them and wind it conveniently.

The Newcastle Casket Company has filed an account suit against Edward D. Lewis, an undertaker of Carthage, demanding $250.

ART SMITH MADE BIG HIT WITH JAPS

Indiana Aviator Has Received Many Gifts of Appreciation From the People of That Country.

TRINKETS FROM COUNT OKOMA

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 19.—Art Smith, the aviator from Fort Wayne, Ind., who made such a hit with the Japs by his daring flights, and who looks forward to several more weeks in a hospital here as the result of a broken leg, has brought home with him from Japan a trunk full of trinkets, favors and medals—but most of all he prizes a little gift from Count Okoma.

"Me no never bad girl," wrote Art's little admirer, fearing that the American might misinterpret her interest. "Maybe possibly Americans do not understand Japanese girl," she said. But Art Smith understood. He wrote back that he appreciated deeply her gift and would be delighted to show it to his mother.

The girl was only 12 years old, and the gift consisted of a little wooden picture frame enclosing a colored postal card. There was also a paper lacquer box with a piece of crochet work.

Art Smith did not make his appeal alone to the Japanese children and common folk. He exhibited today a collection of wonderful medals. But most wonderful of all was a trinket from Count Okoma, showing a Japanese goddess trailing a string of thirty-two diamonds through a golden sky. The thirty-two gems represent the thirty-two meter wind in which Art flew so bravely at Tokyo before the Mikado's court.

Wilbur Spiver has resigned his position with the Pyle Laundry and his place will be taken by Bryce Stoops.
